

Modesty Prayer

We are all made
in your image
owe God.
There is a deep beauty
in each woman,
in each man,
and in
all of creation,
which
praises God.
Guide me in how,
I see the
deep mystery,
of God dwelling
in each person.
Encourage me to make choices
of patience,
of temperance,
and of dignity.
Purify my heart
and renew my mind,
so that I may bring
the love of God,
living in me,
to paint the
world with wonder.
For it is not in possession that I find satisfaction
but in a deeper freedom which avoids illusion.
We are all made,
in your image owe God.
By veiling this
sacred beauty,
we recognise
the mystery,
of whom you are.
God living in all of us.
Amen.
